

New Facility

In January of 2008, Vigneron Specialty Products relocated the business from Paso Robles to San Luis Obispo. The new office and production facility gives Vigneron more space for administrative personnel and a more efficient warehouse for manufacturing. The move will accommodate continued growth of the business for many years.